Captain John from Fishemlite Charters let me know he's been heading east of Montauk for stripers and sea bass. His clients are still experiencing a pick of fish up to 40 pounds despite the heat. He's also been adding some nice cod to the cooler on most of his trips using only bucktails and soft plastics. Kathy from the Lazy Bones told me they sure did have an extremely active week with some knot heads up to 4 pounds and tons of mackerel too. Last week Guy Donnelly literally dominated in the pool taking using Chris Gray's doormat fluke rigs. He won 5 pools with his fish at 5-1/2, 5-1/4, 6-1/2, 6 and 6-1/4 pounds. He also had quite a few other keepers along with some nice sea bass. A human fishing machine he was. The other pool winners were Kristin Deleo with a 6-pounder, John Calarco with a 5-pounder, and TCG was out for a couple of days and limited out Wednesday afternoon. Call ahead for reservations at (631) 668-5671. More July 25, 2022 - 13:36:45 Captain Mark from the Montauk Star let me know earlier in the week the conditions were not as ideal but as the week went on they got better and so did the fishing. Song took the boat pool with his 9.4-pounder on Saturday and Big Pat grabbed the side pools with his 9.3-pounder. If you're interested in fishing with them please call (631) 872-5185. They have been sailing from 6 to 3 p.m. More July 25, 2022 - 13:36:45 From the Ebb Tide the captain let me know of a slow start to the day fluking on Saturday but as time went on it got better and better. From the Ebb Tide the captain let me know of a slow start to the day fluking on Saturday but as time went on it got better and better. They had to make a dramatic move early and it wound up paying off with a half-dozen keepers on the last drift mixed in with some jumbo sea bass and scup. Jane took the pool with a 4-pounder. The afternoon saw a continuation with multiple keeper buckets. Handsome Frank, Benchwarmer Richie and Janey all had two to three keepers each. Again nice sea bass were in the mix on the p.m. trip. From the Viking Fleet of Montauk On the Saturday half-day morning trip Captain Steven Sr. reported that they did not have best conditions due to the leftover ground swell. Fishing was slower than they have been seeing and they had a day of being surrounded by sea robins. Despite all this the boat put a catch together with nice shot of sea bass. The first place pool was taken by Hunter Burk of Burbank, CA who landed a beauty 3.5-pounder. Second place went to Victor Garcia of Durham, NC with a 3-pound sea bass. The p.m. trip had a much better afternoon of fishing than what the a.m. trip consisted of. Lots of sea bass, some nice keeper fluke and some porgies came over the rail. The pool winner was Dean Ward of Stony Brook, NY with a 4-pound fluke. Second place went to Mike Michiue who landed a nice 3.5-pound sea bass. Give them a call at (631) 668-5700 or reserve your spot at vikingfleet.com. Captain Keith from the Fin Chaser reported he was very pleased to announce that two of his awesome anglers proved why they are awesome. Zafar Alli and Santos Hernandez won the Montauk Mercury Grand Slam Tournament for the Party Boat division. Zafar for a 5.26-pound sea bass, and Santos for a 2.53-pound porgy. Keith has been smiling all week. It was a triple play day earlier in the week on Monday as limits of sea biscuits and porgies along with some fluke hit the deck. There was some impressive talent on deck with the "Legendary Liam Nagle" filling his limit on jumbo sea bass along with XL porgies and a summer flattie. Ten-year-old future sharpie and first-timer Davion Salesman observed the adult anglers swinging jumbo biscuits over the rail. He then proved he was a fast learner as he sealed the deal with a pool winning 3.2-pound sea bass. The smorgasbord table was set up on Variety Wednesday as the anglers connected with jumbo sea biscuits, scup, summer flatties and triggerfish. Action remained hot on Thursday with boat limits of large sea bass and porgies. Vinny Locabucci made the trek from Kenosha, WI and drained the pool with a 3-pound sea biscuit. The deluxe biscuits continued to come over the rails all weekend. On Friday, Della Skinner took the guys to school and placed more jumbo sea bass in his cooler and topped it off with scup. Then on Sunday the triggerfish made a return visit and shared the clam baits with the porgies and sea biscuits. This time it was Joe Mendez whose magic stick did the trick and pulled a 4-pound sea bass out of the water. Need bait? They have it. Need fish? They have 'em too! Jill form the November Rain reported it was another stellar week of bass and bottom fishing which started off with Marine Park native Aaron Schneider, his son and buddies. This was Aaron's first time with them. They got out just in time for slack tide, which didn't do them any favors, but the gang boxed their six striped bass before the trip was over. Later in the day they headed back out with Evandro and his family. The group of 9 put away their limit of striped bass with ease, releasing a handful of other slots as well. Rudy Lopez returned for another trip on Monday and the guys put six bass on ice, released about a dozen oversized onesand then topped off with a limit of sea bass. First-timers Keith and crew sailed a half-day last week. They wanted a little bit of everything, so the captain got them a few bass, some fluke and sea bass. That afternoon saw the Doug Shook group, as well as a lot of wind. Conditions weren't great, which impacted the fishing. They stuck with the bottom fishing and had a few fluke and sea bass. Midweek saw Dan Livingston and his crew from Maryland. The guys spent a day and half with them and went back home with striped bass, sea bass, fluke and sore arms for great
